

1. Retreat

Minimum Age Unless otherwise stated, our retreats are open to those aged eighteen or over.

Getting The Most From Your Retreat By choosing to come on a retreat, we hope you have made a conscious decision to withdraw from your everyday responsibilities and become more receptive to your spiritual growth. Therefore, we discourage the use of technology and making outside appointments during your stay. To assist you with this, you may leave the telephone number of our offices with a relative/friend, should it become necessary for them to contact you. Please encourage them to use this number only in an emergency: not as a way to pass unnecessary messages to you and disrupt your relaxation.

Solitude Or Silence We hope you will enjoy the company of fellow retreatants but understand that it is also a time for reflection. Please feel free to be quiet and alone when you need to, and respect other people's need for silence or solitude. There is a chapel and reading room, specifically for prayer and reading. There are also places to sit quietly in the grounds, but please be aware that this space is shared with staff members and visitors.

Ordering Books There will be an opportunity to purchase any recommended reading material during your stay. Please pass your order on to the facilitator or housekeeper. Your purchase will then be available for collection on the morning of your departure.

Housekeepers We have housekeepers to manage the practical matters of running a retreat and ensure your stay is a comfortable one. However, there will be times when you are expected to help yourself and contribute to light household tasks.

Our Right To Refuse We reserve the right to refuse admission, or ask someone to leave, if we believe their behaviour is having a negative impact on the retreat. No refund will be given under these circumstances.

Unreasonable Damages Deliberate damage to the property, its contents or the estate, must be paid for.

Personal Property Please look after your personal possessions as they remain your responsibility at all times. Should you leave anything behind, we will hold it for three months in our Lost Property Box.

Permission To Use Your Image Occasionally, the facilitator may take photographs in the retreat house or surrounding area. Please let him/her know if you do not wish to have your image used on our website, brochures, or books.

Taking Images During Your Retreat You are welcome to take photographs in the retreat house and grounds but if they include fellow retreatants, please ask for their permission beforehand. Equally, if someone asks for your permission, please feel free to decline.

1a. Accommodation Requirements

Same-Sex Shared It may be necessary to share accommodation with a member of the same sex, either in a twin or triple room. Should you wish to share with a friend or relative, please indicate this on your form and we will try to accommodate this.

Single Occupancy If you wish to guarantee a room with single occupancy, there is the option to pay an additional charge. This is £20 per night, or £100 for a five-day retreat.

Access Retreatants' bedrooms are on the first and second floors and accessed by two staircases.

Arrival And Departure Arrival time is between 2:00 pm and 4:00 pm: departure time is by 10:00 am. Please try to arrive and depart on time to keep disruption to a minimum.

1b. Dietary Requirements

Vegetarian Ethos All meals are vegetarian and prepared in our main kitchen. We use some organic produce and have a welfare based dairy and egg policy approved by Compassion in World Farming. We also have soya milk available.

Food Allergies/Intolerances If you have a medically diagnosed food allergy or intolerance, please let us know and we will endeavour to cater for you. However we cannot guarantee your food will be prepared in an allergen-free kitchen, and we may not be able to cater for multiple food intolerances. In these circumstances, it may be better for you to bring along your own food, which you are welcome to store in our retreat kitchen. Due to health and safety reasons, there is no access to the main kitchen. Please do not bring any meat or fish.
